

A decorative wooden frame with a rustic, weathered appearance. Inside the frame, there is a white rectangular area containing text. To the left of the text, there is a plush scarecrow wearing a brown hat and overalls, sitting next to a pumpkin and a slice of orange. To the right of the text, there are two ears of yellow corn cobs hanging from a plaid ribbon tied in a bow. The background of the frame is filled with autumn-themed decorations, including wheat stalks and dried leaves.
